D) Tax deducted at source

Income in respect of units

As per the proviso to Section 196A(1) of the Act, no tax shall be deducted at source from any income credited or paid to non-resident unitholders in respect of units of a mutual fund specified under Section 10(23D) of the Act. Capital gains

1. No tax is required to be deducted at source from capital gains arising at the time of repurchase or redemption of the units for resident investors.

2. As per the provisions of Section 195 of the Act, tax is required to be deducted at source from the redemption proceeds paid to investors; this withholding is in addition to the securities transaction tax payable, if any, by the investor.

3. No capital gains tax would be withheld from proceeds paid to NRIs / PIOs from long-term capital gains arising out of redemption of units held in an equity oriented mutual fund. The rate of withholding tax for short-term capital gains earned by an NRI / PIO on redemption of units held in an equity oriented mutual fund would be 15 per cent (plus surcharge, education cess and secondary and higher education cess as applicable).
